

Thanks and Farewell, but not Godbye!

Per-Anders Hansson, Maria Bywall, Anna-Karin Östlund, Berit Wennberg & Eva-Lena Selfene for a well functioning department.

Jan-Olof Drangert for long and stimulating cooperation.

Gunilla Brattberg, Madeleine Fogde & Elisabeth Kvarnström for inspiring discussions and cooperation.

“My” PhD:s Björn Vinnerås, Cecilia Sundberg, Pernilla Tidåker, Charles Niwagaba, Sahar Dalahmeh, Johanna Spångberg, Evgheni Ermolaev & Agnes Willén for good cooperation and new knowledge.

Co-supervisors Mikael Pell, Lena Rodhe, Ann Albihn, Bengt Carlsson, Berit Mattsson, Magnus Ljung, Maimuna Nalubega, Lars Hylander, Ingrid Öborn, Björn Vinnerås, Pernilla Tidåker, Cecilia Sundberg & Per-Anders Hansson for invaluable help.

Funders

Studied treatment plants, families and individuals.

Thanks and Farewell, but not Godbye!

My wife Ingrid and our children Johanna, Maria and Axel, and their families, for joy, love and learning experiences.

My supervisor Nils Möller for introducing me into research and for never commenting my parental leaves.

Members of the Environmental Engineering group Sahar, Jennifer, Evgheni, Pritvi, Louis, Alice, Solveig, Sven, Chris, Gulio, Victoria for dedicated work and Annika, Cecilia and Jenna also for practical arrangements today.

Björn Vinnerås for long and fruitful cooperation, for saving my life at least once, for taking on the leadership of the research group and for initiating, financing and organizing this symposium.

Speakers: Petter, Grietje, Jan Olof, Chris, Tove, Mariska, David and the moderator Mats for stimulating input.

And to All of you for participation and fruitful discussions and contributions to the day.